

SINNE EEG

Danish jazz vocalist & songwriter — short biography

With her warm, dark-toned voice, fearless improvisation and rare ability to connect with an audience, Danish jazz vocalist and songwriter Sinne Eeg (sée-neh ée) has become one of Scandinavia's most distinctive jazz artists.

Her career spans Europe, Asia and the United States, and her music moves naturally between classic vocal jazz, original songwriting and a contemporary Nordic sensibility. She is equally at home in an intimate duo or quartet setting and in front of a big band or symphony orchestra.

Eeg tours extensively throughout Europe, the US, Japan and China and has built a strong and loyal international audience, with particularly significant followings in Europe, the United States and parts of Asia.

Her collaborators include Peter Erskine, Larry Goldings, Scott Colley, Joey Baron, Larry Koonse, Ken Peplowski and Ulf Wakenius. Her recent releases include Shikiori, recorded in Japan with pianist Jacob Christoffersen, Dreams, recorded in New York, and We've Just Begun with the Danish Radio Big Band.

She has received numerous awards, including multiple Danish Music Awards, the Danish Radio P2 Jazz Prize, the Ben Webster Prize, the French Prix du Jazz and Queen Ingrid's Honorary Grant.
